THE MONKS BARN

The Barn was originally built around 1650 at Dennington in Norfolk. All the timbers were numbered, dismantled and were made ready for re-erection and now stand proud in the grounds of Ye Olde Plough House.

In its 350 year life the Barn has been home to many glorious occasions and the views of the magnificently landscaped gardens enhances the beauty of the barn making it the ideal wedding venue.

The largest of our function suites seats a maximum of 150 guests for a sit down meal and 250 guests in the evening. Surrounded by our beautiful gardens makes this the perfect setting for amazing photos & Memories.

Couples booking The Monks Barn also have the opportunity to book the Sole Wedding Package this means that you can pay a £1000.00 supplement to secure being the only wedding held on your special day. You will also have priority to choose where you would like the ceremony held and at a time of your choice.

The supplement is made payable at the time of booking. Although you will be the only wedding we will still host other functions on this day, however you will be exclusively the only Bride & Groom.

Terms & Conditions

1. A provisional booking can be held for a period not exceeding 14 days.
2. A booking will not be confirmed until a £1000.00 deposit has been paid and Ye Olde Plough House have received a signed copy of the terms and conditions. Please note deposits are non-refundable and non transferable.
3. Six Months prior to the date of your function, an interim payment of £1000.00 is required. Please note this payment is also non-refundable & non-transferable.
4. Approximately 6 weeks prior to your function, you will be invited to attend a consultation with a function coordinator. At this consultation your function will be discussed, and full details of your requirements, including your menu choices and confirmation of the number of your guests attending your function will need to be confirmed by you. Based upon this consultation, an invoice will be prepared and forwarded to you within seven days.
5. Full Payment for your function must be paid to us at least 21 days prior to your function.
6. Any additional expenses incurred on the day are to be settled on departure. Cash, credit & debit cards are the only acceptable means of payment.
7. Table plans must be submitted 10 days prior to the function.
8. All prices are inclusive of the current rate of V.A.T.
9. Ye Olde Plough House hereby make you aware that they cannot accept any responsibility for the supervision of children around our ponds or grounds.
10. All Wedding Functions that have booked a meal during the day must have an evening buffet for a minimum of 75% of your total guests attending the evening.
11. In the event of a cancellation within 5 months of the function by you, the Ye Olde Plough House will be permitted to recover its estimated losses. These will be based on the information provided on the wedding booking form. For guidance purposes they are likely to be as follows. At 5 months notice, but not less than 3 months - 50% of the total estimated bill. At 3 months notice, or less 75% of the total estimated bill.
12. It is not the Ye Olde Plough House's responsibility to liaise with the District registrar with regards to services held at "Ye Olde Plough House" and we accept no liability for a wedding ceremony not taking place howsoever caused.
13. The Ye Olde Plough House suggest that all wedding parties should consider taking an appropriate insurance policy to insure their wedding day.
14. The Ye Olde Plough House reserves the right to amend its published prices by giving you a minimum of 3 months notice.
15. The Ye Olde Plough House also reserves the right to increase its published prices for V.A.T. and duty increases imposed on them by the Government's budget without prior notice.
16. Ye Olde Plough House accepts all bookings on the basis that the venue supplies all food and drink items with the exception of one Wedding cake. Please note any guests found consuming their own drink will be escorted from the premises.
17. Ye Olde Plough House hereby inform you that if any of your guests require reservations for our overnight accommodation that our hotel rooms are let on a first come first served basis and we therefore suggest, to avoid disappointment that you inform your guests that early booking is advisable, to secure their overnight room. Please also be advised that payment for these rooms will be required in full when a reservation is made.
18. Cars parked at the Ye Olde Plough House are left at the owners own risk.
19. Damage (other than fair wear and tear) to the Ye Olde Plough House, including any part of the premises, plants, equipment or the grounds, caused by the bridal couples or their guests, will be charged at the original price.
20. The Ye Olde Plough House cannot accept responsibility for the loss of wedding gifts and/or any property left in public areas. All function rooms need to be cleared at the end of the evening of any such items. Any unclaimed property will only be kept for a period of 7 days.
21. The Ye Olde Plough House cannot accept responsibility for the dressing of the function tables, with the exception of our own items, the placing of name cards and favours, if applicable to your function. If you require our staff to carry out any additional dressing of the function tables, these will be undertaken in accordance with your instructions if possible and at an additional cost. Any additional requirements in this regard must be disclosed and costs agreed on or before the consultation referred to in Clause 4 of these terms and conditions.
22. To comply with licensing regulations all our bars (including residents bar) will close at 11.45pm.
23. Cancellation of a wedding will only be accepted in writing with at least one signatory of the bridal couple. Cancellation is accepted on the date of receipt of that letter.
24. Entertainers will need to satisfy the Ye Olde Plough House pursuant to its License for Public Entertainment, that the entertainers equipment has been tested in accordance with N.I.C 18th Edition requirements. In addition to the above, albeit not compulsory the Ye Olde Plough House would also like to satisfy itself that any entertainers do have satisfactory Public Liability Insurance. For bridal parties that have secured the recommended services of the Ye Olde Plough House, the criteria has been met. This legislation has been adopted by the Local Authority in an attempt to ensure that guests safety is maintained when a Music & Dance Licence is in operation.
25. Please note that you are each jointly and severally liable, under these terms and conditions, for all monies due or owed to the Ye Olde Plough House.
26. The Ceremony times cannot be amended from that stated on the Wedding Booking form unless written consent is received from the venue.

TESTIMONIALS

“My wedding was on 20.11.2021 and the staff were so supportive on the lead up to the big day as well as on the day. They helped with any small issues resolving them quickly so everything was smooth.

The grounds are so beautiful and lovely for photos.

As well as the monks barn with all the brick work and beams.

I am over the moon to have used the ye olde plough house, from the amazing food, friendly atmosphere, and accommodating on sight.

I highly recommend to anyone looking for a wedding venue.
Or a venue in general.”

Mr & Mrs McNally

“We were so pleased to have our reception here, the gardens and accommodation are beautiful and everybody loved the food - we had the full wedding breakfast and evening buffet.

We ourselves are vegetarian and had lots of vegan guests who were not disappointed.

The Monks Barn was beautifully decorated with colours and photos/ favours of our choice. Leading up to our day, Ye Olde Plough House were great at getting back to us via email whenever we had any questions or queries about our special day, especially during the anxieties of Covid lockdowns and postponements.

Staff were professional and efficient. Thank you for giving us a lovely day to remember.”

Mr & Mrs Aisling

“We married here on Sunday 24th October, third date after being postponed due to Covid. We simply cannot fault this venue; we had the best day as did all of our guests. Stunning food, gardens ... and all of the staff are absolute angels. Thank you all for a wonderful day we shall never forget.”

Mr & Mrs Miles

“Had our wedding at Ye Olde Plough House in October and I could not praise them enough. The whole Events Team went above and beyond to ensure everything about our day was exactly as we wanted. Nothing was too much trouble for them. The venue itself was absolutely stunning, both the grounds and inside the Monk’s Barn too. And the food was amazing - our guests have all since commented on how good the food was! Thank you so much to everybody at Ye Olde Plough House for making our day so special and giving us the wedding we dreamed of”

Mr & Mrs Brewers

“We would love to thank everyone at Ye Olde Plough House for our beautiful wedding which was held on Thursday 23rd Sept 2021. It was such a beautiful day & everything went so smoothly! The dinner & buffet were amazing! Guests kept complimenting how beautiful the venue/grounds was. It was such a perfect day and we wouldn’t fault anything! We are sooo glad we had our Wedding here and would definitely recommend YOPH to any couples who are getting married! A big thank you again! Stay safe, love the new Mr & Mrs Miles”
